

Picture Your Story: An Integrated Approach to Arts & ELD

For California TK-5 Teachers, TOSAs, Art Specialists, & ELD Specialists

November 16, 2021

Join us for this dynamic workshop where we will focus on incorporating the power of the arts to cultivate writing and storytelling in the elementary classroom. Content will help educators create an inclusive environment for multilingual students to support English Language Development.

Outcomes

- Learn how culture and language can be demonstrated and shared visually for all students.
- Engage in a process to design ELD standards-aligned lessons in an artistic discipline.
- Connect Arts to the implementation of Integrated and Designated ELD.
- First 50 registrants will receive a free copy of Dr. Goldberg's book: Arts Integration: Teaching Subject Matter Through the Arts in Multicultural Settings 6th edition (2021)

KEYNOTE

Meryll Goldberg
Arts Integration
Educator and Musician

Meryll Goldberg is a Professor of Music at California State University San Marcos and Director of the ART=OPPORTUNITY campaign of Center ARTES, a university center dedicated to restoring arts to education. Her publications include Arts Integration: Teaching Subject Matter Through the Arts in Multicultural Settings. She has received numerous research and programmatic grants including Federal Department of Education Arts in Education Program, Fulbright-Hays Foundation, National Endowment for the Arts, California Arts Council, Stuart and Panta Rhea grants. In 2018 she was awarded the Wang Family Excellence Award for Outstanding Faculty Teaching in the CSU.

Virtual

Register Here
(Pre-Registration Required)

FREE!

November 16th, 2021 3:30-5:30

3:30-4:00 Keynote Speaker

4:00-5:00 ELD and Arts Integration
Project Design

5:00-5:30 Panelist Discussion

